NOTICE TO SHAREHOLDERS

When selecting securities, the Manager will seek to diversify exposure across different classes of debt securities variations and returns. When managing the fund's exposure to different segments of the market, the Manager must take into account the potential for gains and losses in the underlying market conditions, taking into account the risks associated with each investment. The fund's investment strategy is designed to achieve a balance between capital preservation and capital growth over the long term. The Manager may adjust the fund's exposure to different classes of debt securities at any time, and may, in its discretion, hold cash or other liquid assets in order to maintain liquidity and capital preservation.
