Dear Sirs,

Reduction in fees on Fidelity Funds – EURO STOXX 50™ Fund

We are writing to inform you of some changes to shareholder fees that are happening on the FF – EURO STOXX 50™ Fund (the 'Fund').

The Annual Management Fee (AMF) and On-going Charge Figure (OCF) for the Fund are being reduced with effect from Tuesday 1 December 2015. Details of the current and revised fees are shown in the table below.

Share Class	Current Fees		Revised Fees from 1st December 2015
	AMF%	OCF% at 30 April 2015	AMF%	Estimated OCF%
A-EUR, A-GBP, A-ACC-EUR	0.60	1.00	0.20	0.35
Y-ACC-EUR	0.30	0.70	0.10	0.25

The market environment for passive investment disciplines has become increasingly competitive and fees on the Fund are being reduced to reflect this.

What is the Fund's Investment Objective?

The FF – EURO STOXX 50™ Fund (the 'Fund') was launched in 1996 and aims to track the performance of the EURO STOXX 50™ Index (the 'Index') as far as practically possible. The Index is composed of 50 industrial, commercial and financial stocks and aims to provide representation of sector leaders within the Eurozone. As the Index represents the 50 largest companies in terms of market capitalisation its constituents and their respective weightings will vary through time.

If you have any questions, please contact your local Fidelity representative.

Yours faithfully,
